

U.S. REPATRIATION PROGRAM REFUSAL OF TEMPORARY ASSISTANCE

SECTION I: INTRODUCTION

The U.S. Repatriation Program provides temporary assistance to U.S. citizens and their dependents returned by the Department of State from a foreign country to the United States because of destitution, illness, war, threat of war, invasion, or similar crisis; and who are without resources immediately accessible to meet their needs. The full cost for the temporary assistance provided must be repaid to the U.S. Government unless a waiver has been applied for and approved by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services / Administration for Children and Families / Office of Human Services Emergency Preparedness and Response.
